Let this new redemption game bring the atmosphere and excitement of a race-meeting to your specific location. Our a 3-player unit is fully automated, the commentator calls the players to participate, supported by on-screen displays and the traditional post horn. See your horse enter the starting stalls, snorting and preparing for the 'off' whilst awaiting the starting bell. Enjoy the background sounds and sample the atmosphere - it's like being live at the races. Use your skill to roll your ball into the different value scoring holes in the table to make your horse canter, sprint or gallop down the course to the finishing post

Then follow the race commentary and sound of the horses hooves pounding on the turf as they gallop past the furlong markers as you use your ball rolling skills to beat your fellow riders to the winning post.

Then settle down for the next race.
